

A full-page photograph of a wedding couple in a field of tall, dry grass. The man, on the left, has a beard and is wearing a green and red plaid suit jacket over a white shirt and a red tie. A red flower boutonniere is pinned to his lapel. The woman, on the right, is wearing a white lace wedding dress and a crown of red flowers and greenery. She is leaning her head against the man's shoulder. The background is a soft-focus field of tall grass and trees, with a bokeh effect from sunlight filtering through the leaves.
